

Location

Whether you're looking for the buzz of a big city or a stroll in the park, Kingsleigh Manor provides it all.

Local information

Kingsleigh Manor is an exclusive development that offers a range of 13 stunning 3 and 4 bedroom detached properties, located on the border of Heaton Mersey and Burnage, close to the vibrant Manchester City Centre.

A hub of culture

Burnage village offers good facilities and has a rich heritage dating back to medieval times. Through the ages, this thriving suburb has been the home of some notable icons, from the captain of Manchester United's 'Busby Babes', Roger Byrne and actors John Thaw and David Threlfall, to Noel and Liam Gallagher from Oasis.

Shopping and local area

If you're searching for a perfect place to bring your family up, the area has three schools that are all rated as 'Outstanding' by Ofsted. Plus there are fantastic leisure facilities close at hand, from a choice of children's play centres to the cinema and bowling alley at Parrs Wood Entertainment Centre.

For local amenities you've got the neighbourhood Tesco as well as the impressive Handforth Dean Shopping Centre just six miles away, or if it's high street names you are after, Stockport town centre is close by as well as The Trafford Centre, just 12 miles away.
